Brooke Carlisi

WOMEN THRIVE & SOCIAL ACTION COORDINATOR

Brooke Carlisi is the Women Thrive and Social Action Coordinator for Wise Temple. She is passionate about bringing those in the Jewish community together for fun connections and support. Growing up in upstate New York, she spent many years participating in and running children and teen programming at the local Jewish Community Center and is delighted to be coordinating women's and social action events in our Jewish community! Brooke holds a BS in Education from SUNY Oswego and has worked in public education in upstate New York and greater Boston. She is currently a certified Vision Therapist and enjoys working with individuals and families in this capacity.

Brooke is a Wise Temple member along with her husband Brian, and three kids Matan, Lior and Shayna. Originally from the Northeast, she has found Cincinnati to have a proud Jewish community and appreciates the rabbis, staff, and members who contribute to this inclusive and vibrant Wise Family.
